Vol 31 No 1

"Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light." Matthew 11:28-30

Whether serving Ukrainian refugees or migrants from the US border, One Collective is growing as it shares Christ with the world. We are excited about the mini conference in Zambia, almost 90 staff and workers attending, and the summit in Elgin addressing human trafficking.

If you are speculating that Dann has retired, that is far from the case. His ministry at One Collective continues strong. After many months of testing, on May 15 Dann rolled out a major revision to the website that One Collective staff and workers (missionaries) use for features such as:

- prayer support
- financial tracking
- emergency contact information
- in-house ministry updates
- published ministry updates
- recruit tracking

What do these have in common? Old friends, new dress, cassava mill, handmade boats, spoons game, and crusades. They were all part of our journey to Ghana in January. It was the best time ever. Local churches joined together for three nights and a Sunday morning service with preaching, singing, dancing and prayer. Crossing cultural differences is made easier when playing the game of spoons. We enjoyed connecting with the children in the Love and Care Orphanage, amazed at how they have matured.

How to Stay Emotionally Healthy and Spiritually Alive in The Chaos of The Modern World? Read and apply the book, The Ruthless Elimination of Hurry by John Mark Comer. This is the topic of our current all-church small group Bible study. If you want to be challenged on everything in your life down to coming to a complete stop at stop signs, read this book.

Due to unexpected circumstances, Nancy did not retire as chair of First Baptist Church's (FBC) Missions Team in the fall. She continued as interim chair until March when Dann was selected as the new chairman. It has been a good transition, with Dann continuing work on projects previously started like the interactive missions monitor, and facilitating programs to raise awareness of and interest in world missions such as monthly missionary updates.

After 23 years in our home, we were finally able to remove ancient peeling wallpaper, patch damaged areas, and apply fresh paint to our stairways. Thanks to our friend John for patching and painting; we couldn't have done it without you.
